Three New Members Appointed to the Dearborn Academy Advisory Board

Arlington, MA – Dearborn Academy, a leading special-education day school, and a program of Schools for Children, Inc., is pleased to announce the appointment of three new Advisory Board Members. Combined, the new group brings decades of experience in working with children and adolescents with emotional, behavioral, and learning difficulties, as well as knowledge of fund raising and strategic planning for nonprofit organizations.

Joining the advisory board are:

Patsy Kraemer, LICSW, formerly the Director of Human Services for the Town of Arlington and Director of Arlington Youth Consultation Center. She brings over 40 years of experience in social work for children, adolescents, and families.

Stephen G. Lukin, CIC, currently Agency Partner for The HealthConsultants Group, LLC and serving on the Broker Advisory Boards for Harvard Pilgrim Health Care and Tufts Health Plan.

Robert Zaccardi, currently Director of Strategic Partnerships for MassINC and a former staff member at Dearborn Academy.

“We are very pleased to welcome this experienced and distinguished group to Dearborn Academy,” states Howard Rossman, Ph.D. Director of Dearborn Academy. “The group brings their extensive knowledge and background to assist us in providing the highest quality services possible to the students attending our programs.”

Schools for Children, Inc., President Theodore Wilson, III, Ph.D. remarked, “We are very excited and grateful to our new Advisory Board members. These members are the architects of our common future, as they raise the questions and devise the solutions to meet our strategic goals, and deliver on our mission.”
